1/12/02 Thanks Babo, the Sonoran Desert.
desert creatures great and small.
Here's to a perfect day on a perfect
mtn, cloudless, warm, with a breath of wind. Here's to safe passage for the 5th time and my first time alone.
For I'll go I leave a Jenny Craig bar,
but if the spirits don't take it a hungry human may. Hello Prescott College people. I saw you stuff on Lion's Ledge. We are everywhere.

- Doug Miller - AZ

Here's to wild land and wild people.

Here's to putting an end to terrorism and consequently an end to the C.I.A.

and the F.B.I. In fact, if we are to truly put an end to terrorism we will have to put an end to the U.S. Govt as it has ever been known.

We are one nation, ruled by corporations and the politicians who serve them, committing acts of violence and terrorism at home and around the world in the name of greed and imperialism, under the guise of freedom

Power to the People

Hello Greg.

We tried to get on "Born on Water" yesterday and ended up on Crystal Line, Delicate in the route description for this climb means shit Rock, we bailed from the third. Did Born on Water Today. Beautiful climb. The rock quality was better than imagined. Babs and Itoji's patio have been beautiful, amazing, and spiritual. We have been camped on Lions hedge near the spring for 3 nights. it is the best campsite I have ever had.

Born on Water was a beaut-y-extent rock. Watch out for the pack-eating monster on Lion's Ledge. It is now time to leave the mountain, Tucson Tacos are calling. See ya later I-t-o-i.
